INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS & PARENTS

Everyone likes neat and beautiful writing in any language. This skill requires a lot of practice and patience. However, following some basic rules, even a beginner can start writing clearly in a relatively short time. Arabic is a beautiful language to write. For a beginner or anybody who wants to improve his/her writing skills in Arabic the following guidelines are suggested.

- 1. Closely observe the shape of all the alphabets shown on page 2. In particular the proportionality between the thickness and the size of each letter is quite essential.
- 2. To achieve variable thickness of each letter a special pen should be used. Calligraphic pens are usually expensive. Any ordinary fountain pen (e.g. Sheaffer as shown, $2.00 approx.) can be modified for Arabic writing. Grind the nib according to the figure shown. A fine grain stone or sand paper may be used. For this book a nib thickness of 1 mm is suggested.
- 3. Each letter has a specific position with respect to a horizontal line (e.g. on each page this is shown in the extreme right hand column.
- 4. The direction in which a letter should be written is indicated by fine arrows as shown in the extreme right hand column on each page (e.g. ,).
- Start writing on the second line starting from the right hand side. Try to fill the outlined letter (e.g.) by a single movement of the pen. Do not repeat again on the same letter.
- 6. Always complete the main body of the letter first and then place the dots $(, \bullet \bullet_2)$.
- 7. For the best results complete line 2 through 4 on each page, then 5 through 7 and finally 8 through 10. The number of letters in lines 8 through 10 should be exactly same as given in the above lines.
- Write slowly and carefully. At least five books are recommended for practice.
 Number and date all the books completed to keep track of your progress.
